

All about 's'

Please write all your answers on a separate sheet of paper with your name at the top.

a shocks savage small spaniel seagull

Put these words into alphabetical order to make a headline for a strange newspaper story. Make up the first few lines of the story and write them down beginning with the headline.

b Line up these animals in dictionary order:

snake slug toad seal sheep sparrow starling rabbit squirrel swan salmon scampi c These words are all from the index of a book about farms. What order should they be in?

seedling sprouts sheep scarecrow slug stable soil sunrise sack snail smell

d The first and second letter of these words are the same. Put them into alphabetical order. You can use the dictionary to help you.

shirt shorts shrub shed shack shut shy

e What about these?

stream strange string strung strong

f And these?

seagull seaside seaweed seal seat search
sea